

Disclosure

- Professional Franchise Consultants, LLC is not an agent, employee, representative, or other functionary of the seller of the respective business opportunities and franchises introduced to you.
- Professional Franchise Consultants, LLC is an Independent Contractor engaged in the activity of introducing prospective business buyers to sellers of franchises and business opportunities.
- Professional Franchise Consultants, LLC is not an agent, employee, representative, or other functionary of the seller of the respective business opportunities and franchises introduced to you.
- If you select a business from a company that was introduced by the consultant, the seller pays Professional Franchise Consultants, LLC a referral fee or commission.
- Professional Franchise Consultants, LLC is not qualified to advise in any part of the purchase of a business opportunity. You are urged to seek professional advice from an attorney, accountant, or other qualified resource.
- Buying a business is a complicated investment! Take your time to decide and thoroughly research a perspective franchisor. The Uniform Franchise Offering Circular (UFOC) lists current and former franchisors; you should interview them thoroughly. You should always make good common sense decisions in all investment matters.
- The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) regulates the sale of franchises and business opportunities. Contact the nearest office to you for information to assure yourself that any company you deal with is in full compliance with the law.
- The Better Business Bureau is an excellent information source for potential business buyers. Contact your local bureau, as well as, the bureau, in the city of origin, of the seller.
- You alone are responsible for researching the seller. Our goal is to assist you in this process.